Ticket-printing and a breakdown of the newspaper press delayed matters so that the last papers for the county readers were not placed in the postoffice until Saturday evening, while the foreign list was still later in being mailed. Such delay is not likely to occur again this year.

Ernest Powell, son of Treasurer Powell, who has been with the Frisco at Seligman for some time, is now located at Pittsburg, Kansas.

If you are bilious and seeking advisers, Take DeWitt's Little Early Risers, Just before going to bed. You will find on the morrow, You are rid of your sorrow—That's all: just enough said.

These famous pills do not gripe, but move the bowels gently and easily, cleansing the liver. Their tonic effect gives strength to the glands, prevents a return of the disorder. G. L. HOLT.

We may differ slightly sometimes about some things, but we are all for Taney county all the time.

One Minute Cough Cure

Is the only harmless cough cure that gives quick relief. Cures coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, whooping cough, asthma, lagrippe and all throat and lung troubles. I got soaked by rain, says Gertrude E. Penner, of Muncie, Ind., and contracted a severe cold and cough. I failed rapidly; lost 48 pounds. My druggist recommended One Minute Cough Cure. The first bottle brought relief; several cured me. I am back to my old weight, 148 pounds. One Minute Cough Cure cuts the phlegm, relieves the cough at once, draws out the inflammation, cures croup. An ideal remedy for children. G. L. HOLT.

W. H. Church, of Kirbyville, who has been working at the printing business in Kansas City for some time, came in last night to look after business interests here for a week or ten days.

Startling, but True.

"If every one knew what a grand medicine Dr. King's New Life Pills is," writes D. H. Turner, Dempseytown, Pa., "you'd sell all you have in a day. Two weeks' use has made a new man of me." Infalible for constipation, stomach and liver troubles. 25c at Holt's drug store.

Dr. Baldwin reports that the infant child of Sam Moore that was so severely burned last week, is doing nicely.

You Know What You Are Taking when you take Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic because the formula is plainly printed on every bottle showing that it is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure, no pay. 50c.

LOST.—On November 3rd between Forsyth and Taneyville a pocketbook with name of City Drug store on cover, containing between $20 and $24. A suitable reward will be given for return to C. W. BALDWIN, Forsyth, Mo.

The Popular Sensation.

It's a poor place, remarks the Chicago Record-Herald, that can't get up a volcano or an earthquake scare now.

Angora Goat Sale.

Capt. F. H. Goss, of Oldfield, Christian county, Mo., will commence his annual Angora goat sale Oct. 1st, and sell up to December 1st. Now is your opportunity to buy Angora goats in large or small lots, and start in the goat business. That means you. Don't delay, but start at once. The Ozark mountains is the finest country to raise them in. There should be tens of thousands of Angora goats in Christian and Taney counties.

An Afterthought.

It is always well to remember, says the Chicago Record-Herald, that the extinct volcano, like the reposing wasp, will bear watching.

Notice.

If you know of any soldier who served in the Provisional Enrolled Missouri Militia, or the Missouri Home Guards in 1861, send me their names and post-office address and I will pay you well for your trouble.

Let Vanzandt fix that clock.

Vanzandt for a clean shave.

M. L. Heflin was in town Monday.

Richard Gardner, of Mincy, was a Monday caller.

A. J. Fields, of Mincy, is a new Republican reader.

Prof. Aubrey went home to Protem to vote, returning Monday evening.

The county court convened Monday morning, and adjourned until Wednesday.

The first frost of any consequence this season was visible last Thursday morning, Oct. 23.

A part of the business of the session will be to canvass Tuesday's vote and declare the result.

Mrs. S. E. Groom, of Jennings, Kansas, is visiting her son, C. H. Groom, and other relatives and friends.

Mrs. J. C. L. McKnight visited in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pleas Johnson, at Bradleyville, the first of the week.

Rob Kinyon, who has been at Okmulgee, I. T., for some time arrived home Monday night. He was sick most of the time he was away, but is much better now.

Dr. J. C. Johnson is mending slowly but is still confined to his room. His many friends over the county are anxiously hoping that before many days there may be a more decided change for the better.

Mrs. Wm. Branson and son Willie, of Springfield, aunt and cousin, and Huston Branson, of Maries county, this state, brother of Mrs. A. L. Parrish, arrived Monday night for a visit in her home and with other relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Honey, of Newton, Illinois, arrived last night to look the country over and consider the question of locating here. Mr. Honey appears to be an energetic, up-to-date business man and we trust he may conclude to cast his interests with us.

Stops the Cough and Works off the Cold. Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, No Pay. Price, 25cents.

The Average Taste.

"Music is a very desirable accomplishment," said Mehitabel's mother. "That's right," answered her father. "If a girl likes a young man she can play comic opera and make him feel perfectly at home, and if she doesn't she can give him a few samples from a sonata and make him weary."—Washington Star.

A Thanksgiving Dinner.

Heavy eating is usually the first cause of indigestion. Repeated attacks inflame the mucous membranes lining the stomach, exposes the nerves of the stomach, producing a swelling after eating, heartburn, headache, sour risings and finally catarrh of the stomach. Kodol rebuilds wornout tissues, purifies, strengthens and sweetens the stomach. Gov. G. W. Atkinson, of W. Va., says: I have used a number of bottles of Kodol and have found it to be a very effective and, indeed, a powerful remedy for stomach ailments. I recommend it to my friends. G. L. Holt.

QUEEN HELEN CAN SHOOT.

Italy's First Lady Surpasses Her Hunter Husband in Skill with the Target Rifle.

Queen Helen of Italy is an expert with rifle and revolver, and beat her husband's best target score, although he has the reputation of being a mighty hunter. Her record is by no means confined to target practice either. When she was princess of Montenegro hunting was her favorite sport, and she has had many exciting adventures with big game.

When she went to Italy as princess of Naples she missed her hunting more than any other feature of her girl life. The prince had targets put up in the gardens at Capo di Monte villa and shooting matches were held there. The princess invariably carried off the honors, even when pitted against her husband's men friends or the prince himself. Still target practice did not quite take the place of real hunting, so her husband guessed again.

This time he gave his wife the island of Monte Cristo, to have and to hold as a happy hunting ground, and there she had glorious sport with her guns and her dogs, every season, until the assassination of King Humbert called her to a throne.

Now she has left off killing game and has gone back to target shooting, but she does not neglect her practice or lose her enthusiasm.

For sick headache try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets; they will ward off the attack if taken in time. For sale by G. L. Holt.

[Held over from last week.]

Our fine fall weather still continues and farmers are busy putting in wheat, gathering corn and numerous other fall chores.

Thomas Jones moved back from Lawrence county to his home near Lucin, last week. Tom left during the drought and has been away over a year.

Mr. H. Cox is building a broom factory and will begin the manufacture of brooms soon. This is the first factory on Roark, but with the railroad in sight the way is open for more.

Capt. Truman S. Powell slipped in home last Friday night, after an absence of several weeks visiting Chicago and other points that he had not seen for thirty years and renewing acquaintance with friends of war times.

James S. Cox has arrived home for a visit with home folks and to exercise his franchise as a voter. Jim has been out in the Territory and says he had to come home to rest as work is so pushing in that country that they won't let a man rest and his only chance is to get a call home.

The surveying corps passed up Roark last Friday and crossed the ridge to Reed's spring at the head of Rally creek to begin locating. Parties have been very active lately securing right of way, and are meeting with good success. Uncle Jim Cox seems to be the only one the road will seriously inconvenience and it threatens to deprive him of his home where he has lived many years as the probable line runs between his house and well and will necessitate his building new.

The Ways of the "Yellows."

The craze for pictures goes on apace with the yellow journals, and even courts of justice, it seems, sometimes be martyrs to it. The other day, in a Brooklyn magistrate's court, a "sensational" case was on, and the place was crowded. Suddenly, in the rear of the hall there was a flash, and explosion, and then an uproar all around. The magistrate jumped a full foot from his chair, and counsel for the defense received a shock that left him speechless. Then a dense cloud of stifling smoke filled the hall, turning all the laughers into coughers.

"Young man," roared the magistrate, to the camera fiend, when he found his voice, "I admire your audacity, but this must not occur again." Then all the windows were ordered opened, and for some minutes the wintry wind blew where it listed through the room.

"It's a pity the thing isn't better," said one of the counsel when he saw the paper the next day, "for we all surely suffered enough for it. I can't recognize a person in the picture."

For a Bad Cold.

If you have a bad cold you need a good reliable medicine like Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to loosen and relieve it, and to allay the irritation and inflammation of the throat and lungs. For sale by G. L. Holt.

The printing of 28,000 tickets and break-downs of the press so delayed the work of the office that the paper will be shy of news and everything else this week; but elections come only occasionally and we hope to be up to the usual measure next week.

PATCHES PASTED ON SHIRTS.

Quick and Simple Method of Repairing Tears Employed in Laundry Work.

"When I made up my laundry bundle early in the week," said the middle-aged bachelor, according to the New York Sun, "I found one of the shirts that were to go in so torn that I had some doubts about sending it, but I let it go. To-day when my laundry came back, and I looked it over, I didn't see that torn shirt at first. There was the right number of shirts there, but no torn one. But, looking again, I discovered that the torn one was there, but now finely mended. The body of the shirt, which had been torn in one place away from the bosom for a space of three or four inches, had been drawn back into place, and was now held there securely by a patch pasted on the under side and ironed on.

"I feel bound to say that the job awakened my admiration. As a quick and easy way of mending it was great. All that you had to do was to take a square of cotton cloth of suitable size, spread starch on it, bring the disunited parts together on it, and slam down on it once or twice with a hot iron, and the shirt was mended. I had heard of mending tablecloths in that way by pasting on a new patch, and ironing it down, but I never before heard of mending shirts in that way. Yet it's certainly all right for shirts at some seasons.

"The pasted patch in this use would really be better as a winter than a summer patch. It might be melted off in summer."

A Startling Surprise.

Very few could believe, in looking at A. T. Headley, a healthy, robust blacksmith of Tilden, Ind., that for ten years he suffered such tortures from rheumatism as few could endure and live. But a wonderful change followed his taking Electric Bitters. "Two bottles wholly cured me," he writes, "and I have not felt a twinge in over a year." They regulate the kidneys, purify the blood and cure rheumatism, neuralgia, nervousness, improve digestion and give perfect health. Try them. Only 50c at G. L. Holt's drug store.

EAT PARSLEY AFTER ONIONS.

A Gastronomic Suggestion That Will Be Welcomed by Lovers of the latter.

"Parsley," said the restaurateur, "removes the smell of onions."

He frowned portentously at a waiter who had dropped a plate of ice cream on the red carpet. "Excuse me, won't you?" he asked, and went and whispered something passionately in the waiter's ear. On his return he resumed:

"Yes, you may eat a bushel of onions and a little parsley taken afterward will leave you so that Sherlock Holmes himself would be unable to say what you had been feeding on. That is the truth, and I wish more people were aware of it. For onions, which are the most wholesome things in the world, would be as popular as they are wholesome if this matter of the parsley were more widely known.

"Another thing," went on the man, according to the Philadelphia Record, "old cheese melted slightly makes mince pie digestible. You may be a confirmed dyspeptic, but if you will spread on the top crust of your mince pie a thin layer of rich old English cheese I promise that you may eat the pastry without any aftermath of remorse and pain."
